

John P. Fiske House

Address: 261 Edmond Place

Local

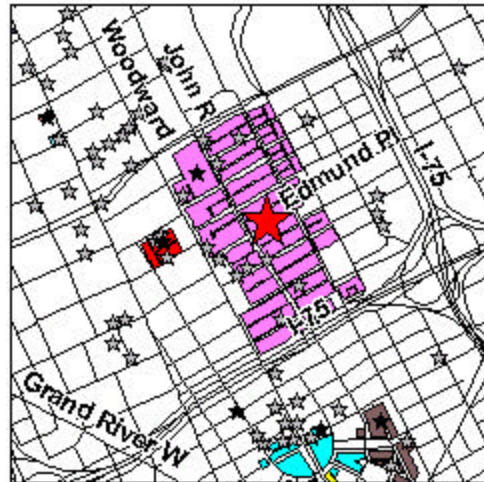

State v 8/18/88

State Marker

National

Fiske House, 2003

Historic Overview:

The Fiske house was built in the Second Empire style from 1875-76. The dwelling features a slate mansard roof and a two-story octagonal tower crowned by an octagonal cupola. The building is brick and trimmed in stone.

The original owner of the house, John P. Fiske, was a prosperous Detroit merchant of china and crockery ware¹.

¹ Information obtained from Michigan's Historic Sites Online.

